as if we don't have enough to worry about, now we have to stop and lower ourselves to the levels of the politicians just to stop big bullies like the NAB from stiffling free enterprise in their effort to restrict free trade. why don't you take some enitative on your own and get off your fat buracratic asses and do your assinged jobs, you should know whats right and its not a matter of collective opinion and you know it. Now do what's truly right and don't continue to make me help you do you do your job. If you need me to paint you a clearer picture you have my e-mail address. sincerely and extremely seriously yours,
